

General Conditions of Service

Version dated october 5th 2021

The following is an agreement between:

- MOLDERM

- and any natural or legal person, individual or professional, under private or public law wishing to engage in one or more of the services provided by the Molderm company hereinafter named the Customer.

ARTICLE 1: PURPOSE

The Customer acknowledges having verified the adequacy of the service him/herself and receiving all information and advice from Molderm that he/she needed to knowingly sign this commitment. This contract is to define the legal, technical and financial conditions in which Molderm engages the Customer.

These General Conditions of Service, supplemented if necessary by special conditions and/or appendices proposed by Molderm, are applicable, with the exception of all other conditions, in particular those of the Customer, of any order by the Customer of Molderm services. Services offered by Molderm free of charge are also governed by these General Conditions of Service.

ARTICLE 2: MOLDERM OBLIGATIONS

Molderm undertakes to provide all care and diligence necessary for the provision of a quality service. Molderm only meets an obligation of diligence.

ARTICLE 3: MOLDERM LIABILITY

Molderm will not be responsible:

If the execution of the contract, or any Molderm obligation hereunder is prevented, restricted or disturbed due to a failure of transmission networks, law, an injunction, a request or requirement of any government, withdrawal of authorization, or other circumstances beyond the reasonable control of Molderm ("Force Majeure Event"), then Molderm, subject to prompt notification to the Customer, shall be exempt from the performance of its obligations to the extent of such prevention, restriction or inconvenience, and the Customer will be equally exempt from the performance of his/her obligations to the extent that his/her obligations relate to the execution thus prevented, restricted or disturbed, provided that the affected party and make its best efforts to avoid or remove such causes of non-performance and both parties shall proceed promptly whenever such causes have ceased or been removed. The party affected by Force Majeure shall keep the other regularly informed by email of the predictions for removal or recovery from the Force Majeure.

If the effects of a Force Majeure Event should have a duration longer than 60 days, counted from the notification of force majeure to the other party, the contract may be terminated automatically at the request of either party, without any right to compensation from the other party.

The contract may be terminated automatically at the request of Molderm because of the Customer, particularly in the following cases:

- deterioration of the application,
- misuse of the terminals by the Customer or its Customers, fault, negligence, omission or failure from him/her, non-compliance with advice given,
- unauthorized disclosure or use of the password provided confidentially to the Customer,
- fault, negligence or omission of a third party over which Molderm has no power to control or monitor,
- request for temporary or permanent Service interruption from a competent administrative or judicial authority

In any event, the amount of damages that could be borne by Molderm, if its responsibility, will be limited to the amount of the sums actually paid by the Customer to Molderm for the respected period or billed to the Customer by Molderm, or the amount of money corresponding to the service price for the Service part for which Molderm was determined to be liability for. The lowest amount of such sums will be considered.

Not being a health data host, Molderm makes no specific backup of data transmitted on the servers.

Therefore the Customer must take all necessary measures to protect his/her data in case of loss of or damage to data entrusted, whatever the cause, including those not specifically mentioned herein.

The Customer acknowledges that no provision hereof shall relieve him/her from the obligation to pay all amounts due to Molderm under the services provided.

ARTICLE 4: CUSTOMER OBLIGATIONS AND LIABILITY

The Customer shall have the power, authority and capacity necessary for the conclusion and execution of obligations hereunder.

The Customer undertakes to communicate, during the creation of his/her account and each modification thereof, his/her contact and accurate and current banking information to Molderm reserves the right to request supporting documentation from the Customer to ensure the accuracy of his/her information.

The Customer is entirely and exclusively responsible for the information and passwords necessary for using the Service.

Molderm disclaims all liability for any unlawful or fraudulent use of the information and passwords available to the Customer or generated by the Customer him/herself. The provision of passwords is considered to be confidential. Any suspicion of disclosure, whether intentional or not, of the supplied passwords, is the Customer's sole responsibility, and not that of Molderm. The Customer alone is liable for malfunction of any subsequent Service use by his/her staff or any person whom the Customer has provided his/her (or their) password(s). Similarly, the Customer alone is liable for the loss of the above information and passwords.

The Customer agrees to comply with all legal and regulatory requirements, particularly those relating to data, files, freedoms and intellectual property, as well as the rights of third parties.

The Customer undertakes to take all necessary insurance with a reputable insurance company to cover any damages that are attributable to him/her under this contract or its implementation.

The Customer declares to fully accept all legal obligations arising from the administration of his/her Services, Molderm cannot be searched or bothered in this regard for any reason whatsoever, including cases of violation of laws or regulations applicable to the Customer's Services. Failure by the Customer of the points mentioned above and points referred to special conditions, including any activity that may result in a civil and/or criminal liability, will give Molderm the right to interrupt immediately and without prior notification the Customer Services and to immediately and automatically terminate the contract, without prejudice to the right to any damages which Molderm may claim.

The Customer agrees to pay any sum required to be paid to Molderm directly to the author of the complaint. In addition, the Customer agrees to intervene, at the request of Molderm, in any proceedings against the latter and to guarantee Molderm of all convictions which would be pronounced against it at that time. Therefore, the Customer agrees to be personally responsible for any claim and/or proceeding of any form, scope or nature that would be made against Molderm and relating to the obligations accepted by the Customer under this contract.

The Customer undertakes to inform Molderm within 48 hours of any change in his/her situation, and within 24 hours of any loss of passwords.

The Customer, regarding contact with Molderm, is committed to articulate his/her request, according to the rules of use.

ARTICLE 5: TECHNICAL SUPPORT

Technical support is available to the Customer at the following address:
support@molderm360desktop.com

ARTICLE 6: EXECUTION, PRICE & PAYMENT

6.1. Creation of the Customer account

For any subscription Service from Molderm, the Customer will have a personal Customer account including contact information. This account may be subject to a verification procedure by Molderm to ensure that the information provided by the Customer is correct.

6.2 Execution of the order

The provision of the Service comes after validation of contact information by Molderm.

6.3. Prices

The current prices for the various services offered by Molderm are available to be reviewed online on the dedicated website. For custom orders, the Customer must send an email to the following address:

support@molderm360desktop.com

Molderm reserves the right to change prices at any time, subject to informing the Customer by email or an online warning on the Molderm website one month in advance if the new prices without taxes are less favorable to the Customer. In this case, the Customer will be able to, within one month of receiving this information, terminate this contract without penalty. Otherwise, the Customer will be deemed to have accepted the new prices. The price changes will apply to all contracts including those in process.

Molderm reserves the right to immediately reflect any new tax or any increase in existing tax rates. The services provided by Molderm are payable on order. The Customer is solely responsible for payment of all sums due under the Molderm Service provision contract. By expressed agreement and unless in the case of a delay requested in time and agreed upon by Molderm in a specific and written way, the total or partial non-payment at maturity of any amount due under the contract ipso jure and without prior notice:

- the immediate payment of all sums due from the Customer under the contract, regardless of the expected settlement;
- the suspension of all current benefits, whatever their nature, without prejudice to Molderm to use the option for terminating the contract;
- the inability to purchase new services or to renew them;
- the application of an interest equal to the legal interest rate in force in France. Any disagreement concerning the billing and nature of the Services must be expressed to Molderm Customer Support.

In the event that costs would be incurred by Molderm shall inform the Customer of them and provide him/her with the corresponding supporting documents and invoice. The Customer will then pay the amount due in euros.

6.4. Payment

Payment, when it is required, is made by credit card or bank transfer.

6.5. Duration

The Service is subscribed for an unlimited duration. The Customer may cancel his account at any time by sending an email to the following address: termination@molderm360desktop.com

Customer data will be deleted one month after the cancellation.

ARTICLE 7: SERVICE TERMINATION, LIMITATION AND SUSPENSION

7.1. Either party may automatically and without compensation terminate the contract in case of force majeure lasting more than thirty days.

7.2. In all other cases of a party failing to meet its obligations under the contract that has not been remedied within 7 days from either an e-mail sent by the complainant notifying the infringements in question, or any other form of authentic notification addressed by the said party, the contract will be automatically terminated.

7.3. Molderm reserves the right to interrupt the Customer's Service if the Service constitutes a danger to the maintenance of security and stability of Molderm infrastructure. As much as possible, Molderm will inform the Customer in advance. If necessary, Molderm reserves the right to interrupt the Service to conduct a technical intervention to improve its operation or for maintenance.

Molderm reserves the right to terminate the Customer's Service in case of non compliance with Molderm general or specific conditions applicable to the Customer's Service.

ARTICLE 8: OPERATING CONDITIONS

The Customer hereby acknowledges that fluctuations in bandwidth and provider hazards are elements that can cause discontinuity in the services offered by the Molderm company, and outside of their technical resources.

Furthermore, the Service is restricted, limited or suspended automatically by Molderm:

- if it appears that the Customer uses the Services provided to him/her for an activity, whatever it is, that would not comply with current regulations or these general conditions;
- under specific applicable conditions;
- if Molderm is notified by any interested third party of an administrative, arbitration or court decision made in accordance with applicable laws, ordering such restriction, limitation or suspension without the need to name Molderm as the cause of it.
- if Molderm receives a notification that brings to its attention the existence of clearly illegal content.
- if the contact information in the Customer account appears false, inaccurate or outdated.

ARTICLE 9: CUSTOMER INFORMATION AND SERVICE CONFORMITY

The Customer acknowledges having verified the adequacy of hardware and service needs and received all information and advice from Molderm that he/she needed to knowingly subscribe to this commitment. Molderm reserves the right to monitor compliance with the Service Usage Conditions.

ARTICLE 10: ACCEPTANCE

The fact that Molderm does not avail itself at a given time of any of these general conditions and/or tolerate a breach by the other party to any of the obligations under these general conditions to not be interpreted as constituting a renunciation by Molderm to subsequently avail itself of any of those conditions.

ARTICLE 11 : PERSONAL DATA

Within the Service, the Customer is informed that Molderm collects personal data for the purposes of Customer relationship management and compliance with legal and regulatory obligations. The Customer's personal data is never transmitted to third parties without prior permission of the Customer, except in the case of services for which the data communication is necessary for the successful completion of the Service.

The Customer has a right to access and rectify information concerning him/her. He/she may exercise this right and obtain information about him/her :

- by emailing the following address : dpo@molderm360desktop.com

The Customer is solely and entirely responsible for the processing of personal data that he/she executes for his/her own account and undertakes, with regard to such data, to comply with all legal and regulatory requirements relating to computers, files and freedoms, in particular to carry out any appropriate formalities with the competent authorities.

It is the responsibility of the public supplier of electronic communications services on the electronic communications networks, open to the public and implementing personal data processing as defined by the aforementioned law, to immediately notify the competent authority of any security violation leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, disclosure or unauthorized access of personal data.

Furthermore, in the event that the breach would be likely to infringe the personal data or privacy of a Customer or another person, they have the responsibility of notifying the affected parties.

Finally, it is the responsibility of the electronic communications services provider to maintain an inventory of violations of personal data, in particular their methods, effects, and measures taken to address them, and to make them available to the competent authority.

ARTICLE 12 : RULES APPLICABLE TO HEALTH DATA HOSTING

Molderm reminds the Customer that he/she shall refer to the list of approved hosts for hosting all personal health data.

As such, Molderm expressly informs the Customer that it does not have the capacity of hosting personal health data and does not have the related authorization.

Molderm expressly informs the Customer that the data is hosted by AMAZON Web Services inc. as part of a service meeting the standards of the "Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act" which ensures a high degree of data security.

The service complies with HIPAA/GDPR security standards and requirements.

ARTICLE 13: RESPONSABILITY FOR MANAGEMENT OF PERSONAL HEALTH DATA

The customer is informed that he is, as a professional , responsible for handling patient personal data he collected. He must follow applicable legislation in this field. Molderm shall have no liability in the event that the customer does not respect applicable rules.

ARTICLE 14: OUTSOURCING

The personal health data collected and handled by the customer is hosted by AMAZON Web Services inc. as part of a service meeting the standards of the "Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act" which ensures a high degree of data security. The service complies with HIPAA security standards and requirements.

The network management ensuring the health data back up, the maintenance operations, and the relationships with the hosting company are outsourced to Molderm by the customer. The acceptance of these terms and conditions shall be understood as acceptance of the outsourcing contract between Molderm and the customer.

ARTICLE 15: PRIVACY, LOCATION AND PHYSICAL SECURITY OF MOLDERM INFRASTRUCTURE

Molderm, along with all its personnel and partners, is bound by professional secrecy and the obligation of discretion in all matters concerning the facts, information and decisions they have learned as part of these general conditions and achieving the related services. Molderm agrees not to disclose to anyone other than itself, its personnel or a third party on request of a competent authority (administrative, arbitration or judiciary, in accordance with applicable laws), directly or indirectly, all or part of information of any kind (commercial, technical, financial, identifying, etc.) communicated to it or that Molderm becomes aware of during the execution of the service.

- Infrastructure Location:

The infrastructures to develop Molderm Services are located within the Republic of Ireland and are the responsibility of AMAZON Web Services inc.

- Physical Security of the premises:

AMAZON Web Services inc. takes all physical security measures to prevent access by unauthorized persons to the infrastructure on which the Customer data is stored.

ARTICLE 16: RIGHT OF WITHDRAWAL

However when a payment is required to access the service, the Customer has a right of withdrawal that he/she can exercise without having to give reason or pay penalties except, where applicable, of costs incurred in a period of thirty (30) days from the subscription of the contract for providing services, by message sent to Molderm Customer Service through its management interface.

ARTICLE 17: CHANGES

The online general and specific conditions prevail over the printed general and specific conditions. The parties agree that Molderm may, by right, modify its service without formality other than informing the Customer by a online warning and/or including its changes in the online General Conditions of Service. Any change or introduction of new subscription options will be provided online on the Molderm website or by sending an email to the Customer. In this case, the Customer may, in derogation from Article 7, cancel the contract within a period of thirty days from the entry into force of these changes.

ARTICLE 18: GENERAL PROVISIONS

18.1 Severability

The invalidity of any of the service provision contract terms underwritten by Molderm, in application of a particular law, regulation or following a decision of a competent court has become res judicata, will not result in the invalidity of the other service provision contract terms, which will keep their full effect and scope.

In this case, the parties shall as much as possible replace the annulled provision by a valid provision corresponding to the spirit and purpose of the contractual conditions.

18.2 Titles

The article titles of contractual conditions are only intended to facilitate references and are not by themselves a contract value or of particular significance.
